

Hoodie Sale Results 2018-2019 and Lessons for the Future

Laszlo Molnarfi

The CdE ran a hoodie sale of 1100 hoodies in March 2019 and sold all of its hoodies. Each hoodie was sold either at 25€ or 30€, depending on the source:

A. In cash, it was sold at 25€. We received 17612€ from this source, and this was forwarded to the bank account.

B. Online, it was sold at 30€. We received 4215.00€ from this source. After refunds and fees, we received 4015.67€ from this source which was forwarded.

C. SumUp, it was sold at 25€. We received 176.22 € from this source. Some of this went for expenses (100€ was forwarded).

Additionally, Teo Florea took 46.1€ for the MyEEB1 application design for his brother Leo Florea from the cash income. 50€ was paid to Natascha and Vasco as per the promise to pay back the presidential candidates for their campaign costs.

+200€ was taken for repainting the CdE room (176.77€ used of this).

+ 540€ (79.99€ for new computer and 364.45€ for 5 beanbags. 58.99€ for printer) was taken.

+75€ was taken for one beanbag.

+ 63.98€ for two toasters

+ 400€ is still in safe.

+ Margin of error (200€ euros as last year).

+25€ euros (Laszlo's hoodie).

+DEPOSIT OF 3897.79€ is missing.

= 27500€ - 23602.22€

= 3897.78€

It is recommended that for the future, there be a list of authorized sellers, and that these sellers each write down their names, what they sold, for how much, by which means and when into a common logbook to track the hoodies. This can prevent such a situation as this from reproducing.
