CDE 2018-2019 Document – The role of class representatives

Document Reference: 2019-2-17-REFORM-5

Object: The role of class representatives

Author: Laszlo Molnarfi, CDE President 2018-2019

Date: 2019-2-17

To whom it may concern,

It is hereby stipulated that the role of class representatives (comprising of the representatives and the vice-representatives) is quintessential to the functioning of democracy and cooperation within our school's walls. The CdE cannot work without the students and the class representatives embodying the spirit of democracy and of cooperation. As such, this document sets out the functions of class representatives and their tasks, as follows:

- A. The function of class representatives is mainly to transmit messages of their class to the CdE. Any issues, ideas and messages may be told to a class representative who will forward this to the CdE.
- B. It is also the function of class representatives to inform on the projects of and to act as a link between the CdE and the students. The class representatives also inform the students on projects of the administration and act as a link between the Educational Advisors and the students.
- C. While they are not CdE members, they enjoy the same rights as CdE members, and report to the CdE. They may ask for information or request an explanation from the administration on any decision taken (sondage). They represent the interests of the students and act as representatives. As all other students, they have full freedom of expression, backed by the CdE.
- D. The CdE is to meet with the class representatives as many times as needed as per the CdE Statute to take ideas, questions (i.e. Q&A) and for anything else collectively deemed applicable.

The CdE requests that classes take precaution when electing their class representatives (by direct vote). Class representative elections should not be a popularity contest – it is vital for democracy to elect motivated and knowledgeable representatives. From the individual student, to the CdE President, representation needs to be equally strongly charged with the spirit of European values.

Signed,

Laszlo
